How to block a phone call?

2019/08/30

Hi Jimmy! Let me help you with your question. Incoming calls can be blocked in the very easy way, just like any other kind of radio frequency band. They are signals, and have a wireless nature which comes from the electronic gadgets world. So to block those signals you need to use electronic devices of the opposite industry. And this industry is the industry of signal jammers. To block a phone call you need to know what frequency this phone is using to operate. When you have this information, all you need to do is to get cell phone jammers which can block the frequency you need and use it. Remember, if you have more questions about mobile phone jammers and their work, you can always ask those questions here!
